

Stems

← This part of the note is called the stem.

*whole notes do not have stems.

In either clef stems go up on the right side when notes fall below the middle line of the staff (Line 3).

In either clef stems go down on the left side if the note is on or above the middle line (line 3).

Here is a mixture of notes below and above the middle line:

